Located in the heart of La Massana, we present a 122 m² property currently undergoing a high-end, comprehensive renovation. The living area—spanning nearly 60 m²—will serve as the home's centerpiece, featuring a living-dining room and a kitchen with a central island in a single, light-filled open-plan space designed for enjoyment. A major advantage: since the renovation is still underway, you can customize finishes and details to your liking. It offers the experience of a new build but with a much faster move-in date. The layout includes three exterior-facing bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and two 8 m² terraces—one with an urban feel and the other offering peaceful mountain views. A parking space and storage unit are included. A unique opportunity to move into a brand-new home in the center of La Massana.
